

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

By booking one of our stays, the customer is assumed to have accepted the following conditions:

- 1) The rates indicated are inclusive of all taxes. They apply on the basis of the number of participants indicated. They are fixed for the current year, unless otherwise stated.
- 2) The vendor reserves the right to amend at any moment the content of the services provided, in light of the following:
  - weather conditions,
  - tides,
  - seasonal considerations,
  - unforeseen staff absence or impossibility of providing a service,
  - or any other case of force majeure.The vendor undertakes to provide an alternative service. In the case of such a service being less expensive, a mutually agreed reduction will be possible.
- 3) Bookings are firm after payment of a 30% deposit, the balance to be paid one week before the date of the service to be provided, unless otherwise stated by the provider.
- 4) The conditions relating to cancellation are determined by the rules of the insurance policy, a copy of which the insured acknowledges having received, if an insurance contract has been signed.
- 5) Cancellation by the vendor results in a complete refund but the purchaser may not claim any compensation.
- 6) Participants must come equipped with the appropriate clothing for the activities provided. To this end, the vendor will make available the requisite information.
- 7) During the stay, personal possessions remain the responsibility of the participants. Similarly, damage or objects damaged by customers will be invoiced by the service providers concerned.

- 8) The vendor states:
  - That he is the legal owner of the relevant conditions figuring in the documentation;
  - That he has taken out a civil insurance with GRAS SAVOYE, the conditions of which may be consulted by the purchasers.
- 9) The final estimate drawn up in two copies and signed by both parties shall constitute the contractual document.
- 10) The purchaser shall give the vendor a list of participants at the time of signing, and provide any subsequent modification to the list as it occurs.
